ELECTION RE-COUNTS.

The Result Still in Doubt as to Hamilton.

Mr. Hutchins is out in North Middlesex.

McDonnell's Majority in Hamilton.

Majority Increased—McDonnell's Majority.

Majority Reduced in South Waterloo.

Results in the County of Hamilton.

Hamilton, July 6.—(Special.)—The re-count was not finished tonight, as expected, but it will likely be over tomorrow morning.

At 6 o'clock to-night 20 divisions had been gone through, and the result was Macpherson 287, Boyle 282, giving Macpherson a majority of 45 in these 20 divisions.

According to the returning officer, the re-counting of the 20 divisions figures the majority for Macpherson was 181, so that there is a gain of 96 for Boyle.

There are 45 divisions in the city, but in addition to the figures given above, there are 20 or more ballots which in the re-count were laid aside, and the counting of these will be submitted to Judge Snider.

The lawyers will argue as to whether they should be accepted or not, and the Judge will give his decision.

When the counting is over the number of votes will be made known, and the decision will be several hundred, and this will settle the matter.

AN EMPIRE IN DANGER

THE SUCCESSION TO THE THRONE OF KAISER FRANCIS JOSEPH

What the Recent Appointment of Prince Francis Ferdinand Means to Austria-Hungary, and the Possibilities of a Bright Future for the Throne.

The appointment of Count Thun to be First Grand Master of the Order of the Austrian Empire, is a significant event. It indicates that the Emperor is now fully conscious of the fact that the throne is in danger. The Emperor is now fully conscious of the fact that the throne is in danger. The Emperor is now fully conscious of the fact that the throne is in danger.

Austria-Hungary is not merely a dual empire. It is a many times empire. It is a many times empire. It is a many times empire. It is a many times empire. It is a many times empire.

Oliver Moore, though all the time holding on to the throne, has been for $7,000 a year, devoted all his time for weeks to the stump and other methods of influencing the electors, bringing all the influence of his official position to bear.

Of course when the Ministers do this as openly it is little wonder that the officials whom they have appointed from time to time should also have their points and intermeddles. Mr. Preston, Provincial Librarian, at a salary of $2000 a year, was one of the candidates for the Liberal party in West Toronto, and of course, gave all his time and attention to that cause.

We notice too that Dr. Chamberlain, the Provincial Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, was also "on deck" at some of the most exciting campaigns. Mr. J. K. Stewart, Provincial Inspector of Liquor Licenses, was also actually stamping for the Liberal candidates.

Several others, here and there, were thus engaged for weeks past. Even now, home there have been examples, which we must regret to see.

It was a principle of the old Reform party long contended for that men in Parliament and in office and authority should be far and as practicable, be kept aloof from party meddling. The Liberals now should respect these principles for which those before them so long contended.

THE REGATTA.

The die is cast. We are to have a regatta for professional carmen at Belleville on the middle days of August. There are the possibilities of a great deal of good for our city in this enterprise, therefore the INTELLIGENCER proffers its hearty support to the committee and at the same time urges every citizen to lend his aid in the premises.

MR. CECIL RHODES

So much has been said and written of late about Dr. Jamson, Mr. Cecil Rhodes and the Charter Company, identified with his name, that it might be thought the subject was exhausted, says the Montreal Gazette. But new developments have taken place every day. There is a class of people who are always late on the stronger side, like Austria in King John, and as President Kruger and his German allies are just now to be the winners in the South African conflict, it is only to be expected that such time-servers should back them up. If they need looking, they would probably have to look elsewhere for it. The existence of such a class does not, however, account for the bitterness of personal antipathy manifested against Mr. Rhodes by certain Englishmen and some English journals, not for the exaggerated abuse of the Company, in some cases extending to all like organizations. So unreasoning did the hostility against the latter become, even before the charges against Mr. Rhodes seemed to be well founded in reality, that the Marquis of Lorne thought it his duty, by a timely word, to remind the critics that all our pay administration was not necessarily to blame because matters had gone wrong in the Dark Continent. Lord Lorne then briefly reviewed the services rendered by some of the great companies, to trade, colonization and the expansion and consolidation of the Empire. But the attacks did not cease. On the contrary, the more the friends of the Charter Company defended it, the more virulent became the vituperation of its enemies. But as corporations have no souls, we may suppose that the Company is not bowed down to the dust of humiliation by those strong expressions of disapproval. It is the outcastness of the empire, the outcastness of Rhodes that calls for special remark. Even if every charge brought against him were proved true, allowance being made for the provocation and he would be a bold diplomat who would count that the policy of the Transvaal Government was a thing to endure in silence or had any basis in justice—the language used by Truth, the Saturday Review and the Daily Chronicle would be wholly unjustifiable. He has been called a sneak and a coward, a man utterly selfish, who simply used others for his own aggrandizement, a man void of patriotism and even of humanity, and accused solely by basest greed.

According to Truth, he is "a snail-paced, slow, one of the basest of the human race." The Saturday Review pronounces him so craven-hearted that he lurked about in Matabeleland with a bodyguard, while it was going out that he was fighting the insurgents. The very idea of Cecil Rhodes advancing against the enemy is, says the Review, calculated to "provoke shouts of laughter wherever Mr. Rhodes is known." It was not, we may suppose, a total stranger who wrote, or at least who originated that ignominy. Personal spite on the part of some inferior "adventurer," whose plans Mr. Rhodes had foiled, may have envenomed the calumny. Nothing would so go directly to the hearts of far-minded Englishmen than Mr. Rhodes' determination (according to the words attributed to him) to fight the white settlers of the Transvaal, and to drive them out of the country. It was thoroughly calculated to retort by a suggestion of an unquenchable laughter at the notion of the sneak and coward leading brave men to face death.

The latest defence of Mr. Rhodes against himself "An Imperialist," and what he says is the point. His arguments are says is worthy of attention as if he had signed his name to his article in the Fortnightly, so far as the Company is concerned, but when it comes to warding off the personal abuse, we would be better satisfied if he had his name. As he evidently writes from his heart and from intimate knowledge of both Rhodes and Jamson, his advocacy is the best thing yet put forward on behalf of the Co-Primer. So far from being a craven and a sneak, Mr. Rhodes has for years been the main bulwark of British power in South Africa, has frustrated the designs of his country's foes, and has, in fine, played a role for which few Englishmen but himself were qualified by native sagacity and long experience. There is no doubt that, after a blunder of the part of the British Government had enabled the Transvaal Boers to intrigue against British supremacy, the German adventurers saw and used the opportunity to create a movement for the establishment of a rival Teutonic Federation, in the hope of ultimately ousting the British from South Africa. It is only to be recalled that the Rhodes have been, years ago, "rain wars," the British Government against the designs of the Germans, and it is quite possible that Mr. Rhodes may have from him caught his distrust of German aggression. "Imperialist" does not blame President Kruger for using German aid in working out his own ambitious plans. But neither does he condemn the British Ministers for realising a tyrannical imposition by a State to which only the mistaken leniency of Mr. Gladstone had given the power of making mischief, and to which no other British Minister would, perhaps, have submitted so long. But the "Imperialist" is so full of his own ideas, and that which tells most in his favor, is the very silence with which his foes in England reproach him, was prompted by loyalty to his friend, Jamson. It is a stand of that silence being prompted by a treacherous desire to shift the responsibility for the raid and its consequences on the French doctor who had saved his life.

It was through unswerving fidelity to his friend that he chose to remain silent, when he could have cleared himself of all suspicion by a word, because that word would have added to the awkwardness of his friend's position. It "Imperialist" statement, which has an air of honesty, and is evidently based on intimate knowledge of South African affairs, can be accepted as the truth, then without doubt the Company and Mr. Rhodes have been the victims of "a conspiracy of misrepresentation and falsehood," which is an outrage to all who cherish the traditional principles of courtesy and fair play.

THE GOVERNMENT RESIGNED.

The Tupper Administration having resigned yesterday, the Liberals, after eighteen years' opposition, which would have been prolonged for five years, despite the racial animus in Quebec, had Conservatives in the other provinces remained in power, will take office.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOL QUESTION.

The Manitoba School question has caused the fall of one Government. It looks at present as if either that Administration which Mr. Laurier will form or the Government in Manitoba—possibly both—will fall on this same disturbing question.

One teaspoonful of Telly's is found to equal one dozen of most other teas.

WHY? Because our sealed packets contain only TEA LEAVES, no dried stalks or other adulterations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor.

Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray. I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and was so well satisfied with the results that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It requires only an occasional application.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

My hair to keep my hair of good color, to remove dandruff, to heal itching humors, and prevent the hair from falling out. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's medicine to friends.

About the Liver.

A liver, sound or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, headache, indigestion, constipation, etc.

The liver, purifies the blood, and is the source of all the life-giving forces.

I have written to thank you for the great benefit derived from your Blood Purifier.

For three years I was troubled with a skin disease, and it was not until I used your Blood Purifier that I was cured.

I can say now that my skin is clear and my health is perfect.

THE FAIR.

About the Liver.

A liver, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing indigestion, sick headaches, yellow complexion, languor and listlessness. Bileless blood enters the system, purifies the circulation and cures the liver of its troubles. We say so and here is the proof.

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Bileless Blood. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried every thing to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Bileless Blood. I can say now that that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Cripes Another Opportunity!

The iron grip of scrofula has no mercy upon its victims. The denouement of the blood is often not satisfied with causing general soreness, but attacks the body with the pains of rheumatism until blood is saturated with scrofula.

Running sore broke out on my thigh. The bone came out and an operation was contemplated. I had a letter from my leg, drawn up out of shape. I was pale, could not sleep. I was a perfect wreck. I continued to grow worse and finally gave up the doctor's treatment to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon appetite came back, the sore commenced to heal. My limbs straightened out and I was able to walk again. I am now strong and healthy and am farming, whereas four years ago I was a cripple. I am now a healthy man. I am now a healthy man. I am now a healthy man.

It is to be distinctly understood that this sale is for ONE DAY ONLY.

Daily Intelligence.

A FALSE TRADITION.

In the address which was presented to Premier Laurier on his recent visit to St. John, Quebec, there occurs the following paragraph:

A new era has dawned for Canada, as the past centuries of those who have been the enemies of the people have been the enemies of the people.

The "wise traditions of economy" in the administration of public affairs by the Liberal party are, like many other traditions, mere figments of the imagination. To this ridiculous tradition we oppose the following facts:

The Mackenzie Government, during their five years tenure of office, added $10,000,000 to the public debt and increased the annual expenditure by 50 per cent, and poor Mr. Mackenzie had to guard the treasury night and day against the "economic" of his party, as detailed in his oft-quoted and highly pathetic letter.

In the province the record which they made is even worse.

In Ontario the Liberals came into power in December 1871. The expenditure that year was $1,816,784. The expenditure for 1881 was $4,088,597. And more than that Sandfield Macdonald's surplus of $3,000,000 in hand cash in 1881. The debt in 1871 was nothing. In 1881 it was $1,401,000, payable under the country system.

During a period of 40 years, they have added about $10,000,000 worth of the people's timber and spent the money. In Ontario the expenditure of a Liberal Administration, has doubled, and the debt grown from nothing to the figure given above.

In Quebec a Liberal Government came into power in January 1887. The expenditure in 1886 was $3,032,607. In 1891, when the Liberal Government went out, it was $4,088,597. In 1886 the debt of Quebec was $19,048,023. In 1891 it was $25,842,148. A Liberal Administration in Quebec, in five years increased the expenditure by one-third and the debt to practically the same extent. It also incurred liabilities on behalf of the Province which have since been charged upon its revenues, and necessitated the borrowing of some five millions more.

In Nova Scotia the Liberals came into power in July 1884. The expenditure in 1883 was $241,099. In 1889 it was $822,492. The debt of Nova Scotia in 1884 was $1,014,744. In 1893 it was $3,142,293. The Liberals in Nova Scotia have increased the expenditure by one-third and multiplied the debt three times.

In New Brunswick the Liberals came into power in March, 1883. In 1882 the expenditure was $614,236. In 1893 it was $696,000. In 1882 the debt of New Brunswick was $1,268,272. In 1893 it was $2,732,297. The Liberals in New Brunswick have increased the expenditure, and more than doubled the debt.

In Manitoba the Liberals came into power in January, 1888. The expenditure in 1887 was $538,196. In 1891 it was $832,000. In 1887 the debt of Manitoba was $2,229,100. In 1893 it was $4,308,256. The Liberals of Manitoba have doubled the expenditure by one-fifth and added the debt.

In Prince Edward Island, where the Liberals have been but a short time in power, the same results have been experienced, and the financial condition of that province is very bad.

It is a matter for wonder that, in face of such facts, the Liberal party should have the audacity to boast of their "traditional" economy.

Be Sure You are Right. and then go on. If your blood is impure, your appetite is weak, your nerves are shaky, your system is out of order, you are not fit to do anything. You need a purifier. You need a blood purifier. You need a blood purifier. You need a blood purifier.

This image shows a vertical strip of aged, yellowed paper. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots. A prominent, dark, irregular border runs along the right edge, suggesting the paper is part of a bound volume or has been torn from a larger sheet. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.
